SOME members of the Maysville City Council last week made a motion to adopt the standard railroad time. Our opinion is that they had better let well enough alone.—Daily Irononian.

Railway Notes.

The C & O. is opening a big gravel-bank on the land lately bought at Russell.

The Big Four's net earnings for February were about $4,000 more than for same month last year.

The Cincinnati Southern and Q. & C. earned $12,230 more in March than they did for same month last year.

The C. & O. runs free excursion trains hourly between Cincinnati and Newport and Dayton to-morrow and Sunday.

The car building season has commenced in earnest. The Ohio Falls Car Company at Jeffersonville has about 1,280 men at work, and it is reported has enough work to last all summer. Since the first of the month the prospects of the car-works have considerably brightened. The Indianapolis car-works has taken contracts for nearly 1,000 additional cars; the Louisville & Nashville has placed an order with the Missouri car-works for 500 box-cars; the Ohio River Company has given a contract to build 300 cars with Pennock Bros., Marion, O.; the Richmond & Danville has placed an order for 500 cars with the South Baltimore car-works, and another for a like number with the Tredegar Company's car-works; the West Virginia Central has placed a contract with the South Baltimore car-works for 300 cars, and the Chesapeake & Ohio has placed an order with Barney, Smith & Co., Dayton, O., for 500 cars.

John B. Lloyd's Death.

Mention was made yesterday of the death of John B. Lloyd, at Lexington the day before. The Daily Press in speaking of the sad accident says:

"John B. Lloyd, who was assistant foreman of the yards at the Cincinnati Southern, while setting a brake on a car load of coal fell in between two cars and his body was cut half in two, besides one leg being cut off. The accident was caused by a pin giving way and the brake pole suddenly being pulled from its socket, thereby causing Lloyd to lose his balance and fall between the cars. The giving way of the brake was caused by a defective wire, which held it in place, just as the death of conductor Williams was caused a short time ago at Greendale by an unfastened crossbar on an engine. It looks as if both of these deaths were caused by carelessness on the part of the company in not having things about the cars and engines kept in first-class condition."

The Transcript's account is different. It says: "Lloyd was on the front of a car making a running switch, preparatory to shunting three cars which were heavily loaded with coal. At Main street he cut the engine off, and the man at the switch closed it after the engine had passed to allow the cars to pass on the siding. As the cars went on the side track, Lloyd's foot slipped and he was immediately thrown from his feet and fell across the track. The three cars ran over him cutting him almost in two and completely disemboweling him."

Wily Walter Willetts.

Wily Walter Willetts has been heard from again. A few weeks ago he borrowed a watch of Miss Sallie Fleming, bookkeeper in the Lexington Transcript office, saying he would get her monogram put on it. The Transcript says: "She asked him about it from day to day, and he always put her off by saying it was not yet done. One day he decamped for parts unknown, taking the watch (worth about $75) with him. The young lady was in great distress as the watch was a family heirloom."

"Chief Lusby and officer Pennington hearing of it, attempted to work up the case. Willetts was finally located in Hamilton, O. Chief Lusby wrote to the Chief of Police of Hamilton, directing him to go to Willetts, demand watch, and if not turned over, arrest him, telegraph him and he would come on the necessary requisition to cause the gay young man to dance to lively music in the Kentucky penitentiary. One day this week the watch came by express to Chief Lusby, and was delivered to Miss Fleming in due time."

Miss Fleming should loan her watch right away to some other oily-tongued rascal whom she has known but a few weeks.

Circuit Court Doings.

Sam Butcher pleaded not guilty to the charge of selling liquor to a minor, but a jury thought differently after hearing the evidence. He was fined $50 and costs.

Peter Pfeiffer was indicted for incest. His bond was fixed at $1,000, and his trial set for the fifteenth day of the present term.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to clean the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

THE Ripley Bee says: "Look out for a large crop of flies and other insects this summer on account of the mild winter."

OPENING of spring millinery Saturday, April 13th, at Mrs. L. V. Davis'. No cards. all 12t

A few weeks hot dry weather just now would cause a big advance in the price of tobacco.

MR. J. M. C. BALLINGER is now connected with the popular Red Corner Clothing House, and will be glad to have his friends call.

MR. H. W. FULLER, General Passenger Agent of the C. and O., passed down on the fast line yesterday afternoon. He had been to Richmond, Va.

MR. WILLIAM WORMALD is having a small sewer laid from his property on Wall street to connect with the one at corner of Second and Wall.

A WATCH or clock is no good unless it keeps correct time. If you have a time-piece that needs any doctoring, take it to Ballenger's jewelry store at once. Satisfaction guaranteed.

OUR diamonds are beautiful, our watches and clocks accurate time-pieces, our silverware the best, our umbrellas the latest, our walking sticks the most novel and unique. Hopper & Murphy. Prices very low.

OWING to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Russell Cecil, there will be no preaching at the Central Presbyterian Church Sunday. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

THE Frankfort Capital says Colonel Bradley is one of the most energetic runners in the State but he never gets there. This is in reference to the Gubernatorial race. It must be conceded, though, that he has come nearer getting there than any other Republican.

THE Grand Lodge of Kentucky, K. of H., has elected the following officers for ensuing year:

Grand Dictator—T. G. Stewart.

Grand Vice Dictator—J. T. Funk.

Grand Assistant Dictator—A. J. Hess.

Grand Reporter—J. A. Demaree.

Grand Treasurer—T. E. Dennis.

Grand Medical Examiner—Dr. H. Miller.

Grand Guide—William Hall.

Grand Guardian—E. G. Boone.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal says: "Mr. W. H. Wadsworth, Jr., of Maysville, who has been in the city for the past two days attending the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the K. of H., is the son of ex-Congressman Wadsworth, and is himself one of the brightest young men of Northeastern Kentucky. He and several friends led the fight of the State delegates for Stuart for Grand Director, and carried it triumphantly."

MESSRS. ZECH & HART, formerly of the Red Corner, have opened a big clothing house at Findlay, O. Their establishment is the largest of the kind in that city. Findlay is in the natural gas belt, and has a population of 25,000, but was a small, insignificant town a few years since. Messrs. Zech & Hart are experts in the clothing business, and the Findlayites will find the firm polite and clever fellows to deal with. Their friends and former patrons here wish them success in their new home.

Personal.

MR. Robert L. Tudor, of Cincinnati, is in town.

MR. and Mrs. Emile Fry, of Frankfort, are in town on a visit.

MISS Anna Scudder, of Carlisle, is visiting Miss Anna Darnall.

MR. T. F. Ellis, of Washington City, is visiting relatives at Aberdeen.

MRS. John W. Powell and baby, of Covington, are visiting Mr. S. R. Powell.

MRS. J. Fletcher Grimes has been spending several days with relatives at Sharpsburg. She will return to-morrow.

More "Suckers" Caught.

A slick fellow has been roeping in the "suckers" around about Ripley the past week. Of course, they grabbed at the bait as they usually do, and are now lashed at for being such fools.

A telegram from Ripley says a few mornings ago, a well-dressed stranger entered Wiles' dry goods store and asked a clerk to show him some samples of muslin.

On being shown the goods, he said he would take half-yard samples and pay for them. He represented that his wife desired the goods. He also purchased samples of silk and cloth. After buying these samples he went to the country. Next afternoon it was learned that a wealthy widow, living a few miles from town, had purchased, on sample, from this man about forty-two dollars' worth of goods. She gave him in payment a check on a Georgetown bank. He had some cheap goods, which he also sold at big prices. He showed a sample of cloth from which he sold her son a suit for $350. A neighbor being present, took three suits, and paid for them. The goods were all to be delivered some time in the future. The man is gone, and it is safe to say the people's money is gone too. The man went under the names of Jones and Murphy to different persons.

The cheapest and best place to pay is always from your home merchants.
